

Sometimes the hardest thing to do is be real with yourself. Erin and her closest friends discover being in love isn't worth all the hype after all. The hardships that come with it can be heartbreaking, and the hurt can be soul-crushing. They soon learn love is definitely a battlefield and these women are ready to go to war, but with each other. Each woman is battling their own demons and life's trials and tribulations are tearing them apart. The sisterhood that was once an unbreakable bond, is quickly diminishing before their very eyes. Deciphering what's real and what's not when the heart is involved is crucial, but love is blind. Erin, Sasha, Skyy and Jeanette learn the hard way that love is the hardest thing to earn and keep, yet the most painful thing to lose.
