

Synopsis When Martin Newman finds a roll of film in his car, left by a murdered friend, he doesn't know yet that he's got the Key, the decoder. Neither does he know that the letter Adolf Hitler wrote just before the fall of Berlin -and kept secret and sealed until then- has been opened following the reunification of Germany, nor is he aware of that he has fallen into the web of a Neo-Nazi coup detat financed by the lost billions of Nazi Germany. He hasn't met Nina yet, a fiery Israeli secret agent; nor has he seen the stunning and mysterious academic Kristen. He has no idea who Kramer is and what he and his men are capable of. That, he would learn later. His quest for the lost billions and untold secrets must scrape through the fighting factions and shadowy intelligence services through the darker sides of London, Munich and Berlin towards the pitch-darkness.
