

In Early 16th Century English occupied Ireland, August and Kronos Connor are fairly content to spend their days handling the duties of Irish nobility and their nights secretly planning and staging raids and other acts for the Irish rebellion. That is, until a long awaited shipment from far in the east reveals their formerly unknown family ties to a lost civilization, spurring them to seek some answers. Their search gets them intertwined in a secret conspiracy threatening to leverage an ancient artifact which will impact millions across the continent. They embark on a thrilling chase across early Renaissance Europe, deciphering ancient clues along the way to get them to a destination where a shocking truth is revealed...one which may change the course of history... Absolutely thrilling every step of the way. A real page turner. - Washington Review
Superb mix of humor and wit with mystery and adventure...a truly enjoyable story. - London Top Books List
