

Melinda, a beautiful young African woman finds herself going through a tumultuous career situation as her economic crisis forces her to look for a good job. Fate smiles on her when she lands a job as a personal assistant to Charles, a billionaire who is humble and down to earth. However, sometimes one right thing messes up her life as her boyfriend Lucas is no longer pleased with the changes in her. Trouble brews and Melinda finds herself losing control. Charles can sense the turmoil she is going through and wants to be the shoulder that could help Melinda through the mess. However, is Lucas simply jealous of her job or are there other things that Melinda doesn't know about? Read this gripping tale of romance to see if Melinda will finally find who she belongs to and the testing situations in life will help her see people in a new light. Life has a way of teaching us a lesson and her economic crisis that ended up with a good job might help her see where she wanted to be in life. Nothing happens just by chance and love can often be found in the most unexpected places.
