The Lord's Prayer is a venerated Christian prayer which, according to the New Testament, Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but Matthew - Epiousios - New Revised Standard Version - Doxology. We need daily pardon and daily protection as well as daily provision. So after Jesus taught us to pray, "give us today our daily bread,― He also taught us.

The phrase 'and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us' is one of those baby steps, which was actually quite profound. Therefore there is here again great need to call upon God and to pray: Dear Father, forgive us our trespasses. Not as though He did not forgive sin without and.

The Our Father is the Lord's Prayer and is a summation of the whole Gospel. and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Forgive us our trespasses is the fifth of the seven petitions in the Lord's prayer (the first three address God, the second four are prayers related to our needs and . "And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us― (Mt 6: 12). Let us notice at the outset that this petition directly unites two acts: the.
