

Single and lonely for 2 months, 4 days and 18 hoursâ€”Itâ€™s snowy Friday night. Lena Nicolette is an attractive, size 16 hard-working senior copy writer in a prestigious advertising firm in the city. Sometimes known as â€œthe big girlâ€•, Lena broke the first work ruleâ€”donâ€™t date or have a relationship with a man in the work place. Not known for having long relationships with men, this one with Jeff did last long enough to be missed when it was over. Hurt from the betrayal of the latest boyfriend, she is lonely and reaches out to an old friend, Lyle Evans, in her time of need. Not exactly first on her go-to list...She texts Lyle hoping for some help from him. Dressing up and banking on a sure thing with Lyle, the night doesnâ€™t exactly go as Lena had planned. After a few missteps, Lena is led to a surprising revelation about the relationship with Lyle and his feelings towards her. When Lyle leaves and the power goes out, Lena canâ€™t stand to be alone in her apartment and ventures out into the snowy night seeking out any form of companionship to comfort herself. Arriving at a crowded local tavern, The Dragon and Wolf, Lena is sought out by a gorgeous and extremely fit stranger with impeccable taste in clothing. But this stranger is not quite what sheâ€™s looking for. It is at home where Lena will find the companionship she has desperately been seeking and will eventually embark on an alpha male romance. After returning home and settling in for the night, Lena indulges in another glass of wine, and swears off men for a while. Before retiring early for the evening, an orange cat hovers outside her window. An act of kindness to a cold feline changes the course of her evening. As he enters her world, he makes himself at home. Little does Lena know that the small intruder that has entered her life will take her places she could only dream of. Where did this orange cat come from? Too much wine and an evening of disappointment and frustration send Lena to bed. In the middle of the night, the cat awakens her and a stranger suddenly appears to her. This individual is Lord Bast, who is no ordinary man but something quite unique and exotic. He is allowed to transcend into the world once every thousand years when the stars and planets are aligned and may become cat or human, depending on his preference. On this night, Lord Bast is in human form and is not going to pass up this opportunity to enjoy every minute of his presence on earth with Lena many times over.
