

As a young christian in the early days of my walk with the Lord and up till today I have always believed that i was saved for a purpose on the earth far more than going to heaven. It is for this purpose of God that I live, and a successful life can only be measured in terms of apprehending the reason for which I was apprehended by Jesus. This book is intended to stir your pure hearts toward re dedication to service, because no excuse no matter how plausible, can be acceptable to God who through Christ gave Himself for us that He might redeem us from all iniquity and purity until himself a peculiar people zealous of good works.
