

Jesus created a kingly-priesthood based in Samaria, in direct opposition to the Temple in Jerusalem and had to find a young woman to bear his heir, but he also had to prove that he had possession of the Ark of the Covenant – the one true legitimiser of the chosen priestly order. In this quest Jesus takes on a protegee – Lazarus. Together, Lazarus, Mary Magdalene, and the son of Jesus make up the original Holy Family. ...Tyson has written a truly powerful & utterly convincing historical perspective of the New Testament & the Jesus saga that will make many of the Bible's biggest contradictions finally make sense, & will ruffle many fundamentalist & traditional feathers as it does so. - REBECCAS READS – Very well written...accessible, intelligent, and convincingly argued - it may indeed be explosive... - L. Vermeer, University of Alberta Press – A bold and provocative thesis in the face of nearly 2000 years of tradition... impressed by the thoroughness of research. - P.
