It is Monday morning quarterbacking from the safe distance of the 21st century. The Armchair General includes seven sets of simplified rules from ancient armies to mechanized and insurgent wars; even campaign supplements for extended play. The historical simulation rules cover: •Ancient Warfare by Land & Sea •Dark Age & Medieval Warfare •Flintlock & Bow •Musket & Cannon •The Age of Sail •Colonialism •Mechanized & Insurgent Warfare This book allows even a novice to testing various strategies and tactics. There is something satisfying; tangible; three dimensional about battles with miniatures. Moving through real space and time; recreating scenarios from Hannibal, Caesar and the Vikings to American 3rd World Wars; from individual warriors to armies. The rules are guided by the Paperless Principle. The generaling lies in the deployment of the miniature forces and the contest, not in note-taking and paper-shuffling.
