

After escaping his miserable life in Nevada, 17-year-old Gavin Hillstone is served with a series of unfortunate events. After discovering he's a Photo Traveler—a small group of individuals that can time travel through photos and images, an unusual relationship with Alanna—a deceased girl from the past, and the death of his long-lost grandfather, Gavin's life only becomes more tangled. The Peace Hunters have kidnapped Edwin—Gavin's twelve-year-old son, resulting from his meddling with the past. Gavin's actions and decisions will determine the outcome of Edwin's life, and he will stop at nothing to ensure that no one else suffers from his mistakes. In this epic, heart-pounding sequel, Gavin will dive into a journey of self-discovery, one that edges the lines of every boundary. With all five crystal vials in his possession, he relentlessly seeks answers in both the past and future. Everything will be risked when he learns the new terms set forth by the Peace Hunters and witnesses the future the Peace Hunters bring to his loved ones. New surprises and discoveries will leave Gavin crippled, left to question everything he thought he knew of himself. In THE PEACE HUNTER, nothing is as it seems, and everything is at stake.
