

“A shocking compilation of photographic evidence that is sure to raise the dander of the orthodox Egyptologists.” Larry Dean Hunter Being a former military journalist, Jerret Gardner is accustomed to fact reporting. In August of 2009 he spent 30 days investigating many of Egypt’s pyramids and temples in order to disclose what Egyptologists would rather not let you see. He has uncovered and photographed new evidence which contradicts many aspects of Egyptology’s long standing paradigm and Egyptologists are taking notice. “Of course there is a ton of archaeological data showing that the Egyptians built the pyramids of Giza in the 4th Dynasty. But, the author doesnt want you to see that!” Egyptologist Peter J. Brand What Egyptologists don’t want you to see “ An adventure in photojournalism, is available in full color eBook or black and white paperback. Once you read and see the evidence for yourself, you will never look at the Great Pyramids of Giza the same again. “I highly recommend this book for anyone serious about finding out about this direction of research.” Steven Myers
